To: All OPE Dealers

As you are perhaps aware Electrak tractors, accessories, and equipment shipped to you on a floor plan basis must be protected against loss by fire, etc., in accordance with our Security Agreement. Your responsibility to General Electric ceases, of course, when this equipment is paid for.

To mutually protect our interest in merchandise, being paid on a deferred basis, we are requesting insurance coverage naming the General Electric Company as loss payee with a memorandum copy of the policy or loss payable binder as our interests may appear, indicating amount of coverage and expiration date.

The attached form letter is for the purpose of assisting your agent in the forwarding of the information requested.
